Parents buy new pet after attack leaves toddler needing operation

BY SAMANTHA BOOTH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A TODDLER was viciously mauled by his family's pet Staffordshire Bull Terrier cross, which clamped its jaws around the child's lower lip, tearing into the skin until it bled.

The Gowers family, of Netherfield, watched in horror as two-year-old Hunter was attacked without provocation by 16-month-old Lokie after the toddler crawled towards it.

"It was the perfect day that turned into a disaster", father-of-four Damien Gowers, 27, told MK NEWS.

The dog was put down and last week the family bought 14-week-old Staffie Sparta from a breeder on website Pets4Home – the same one they used to buy Lokie for £70.

Mr Gowers said they made the choice as they did not want Hunter to be afraid of dogs.

"We are making sure the dog knows his place in the house with training and raising him around the kids," he said.

The attack, which left Hunter with torn skin and 'blood running down his face', happened five days after the family bought Lokie.

Mr Gowers tied the dog by his lead to a tree while feeding horses in Woughton-on-the-Green with his partner Kerri Carder and children.

He said: "Before we bought Lokie we had sit-ins to see how he was around children and he was fantastic. There were no signs of him being agitated.

"On the day, Hunter was crawling towards him saying 'dog, dog' and the dog started latching onto his face. My [step] daughter Hope let out a scream which made him let go."

Mr Gowers ran over and held a T-shirt to Hunter's face to help stop the bleeding.

Hunter was taken to A&E at Milton Keynes University Hospital on Wednesday, June 3 and admitted to Stoke Mandeville the next day for plastic surgery on his lip.

Miss Carder, 26, said: "When Damien moved the T-shirt there was blood running down his face and part of his lip was flapping."

Mr Gowers added: "He is back to his smiling self but it could have been more serious. We're very lucky. The previous owner felt bad when they picked him up, they were crying and apologetic. They have told us Lokie was put down at the vets.

"They said he was fine with children so we will never know why the dog did what it did."

The family shared their story on Facebook and said the incident could have happened with any animal to anyone.

They also encouraged people to carry out research before buying dogs.

Owner: Diner will reopen after blaze

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE owner of MJ's American Diner has described Saturday's fire as 'like a dream' and said that it will take time to rebuild the business.

Nearly 30 firefighters tackled the chip pan blaze at the three-storey building in Chandos Place, Bletchley, at around 9.49am.

The owner of the restaurant, who did not want to be named, told MK NEWS the whole building will need redecorating and refurbishing with new equipment.

He said that the building is structurally sound and that the business 'will rise like the phoenix from the flames'.

He added: "It's been declared safe, the roof was double chipped board so that helped and none of the walls have been damaged, but we will need to redecorate.

"It all feels like a dream and we will have to start rebuilding. We are not like most High Street fast food chains, we have repeat customers – around 90-95 per cent."

The current owner has been at the diner for a year and was relieved his partner had made it out unscathed.

"My missus was in there at the time and she was shocked but I am just so glad she is safe. She tried to tackle it with a fire extinguisher but it got out of control so quickly."

The fire meant streets around the diner and Bletchley Bus Station were closed from 10am until mid-afternoon when the scene was declared safe.

The blaze was dealt with by crews from Bletchley, Broughton, Newport Pagnell and Winslow, as well as a Command and Control Unit from Aylesbury.

A 10.5-metre ladder was used to help carry a man, who lives in one of the properties above the diner, to safety.

The fire caused 100 per cent damage to the ground floor with 60 per cent of the first floor affected by smoke.

Sneak peek of city's first 'all-through' school

PARENTS have been given a sneak preview of a new £7million primary school, which is due to open in September next year.

Oakgrove School – rated 'outstanding' by Ofsted – will become the first 'all-through' provider in Milton Keynes – welcoming nursery and primary children up to Year Six, at which point they will transfer to Oakgrove's secondary campus. The new school will eventually cater for 669 children.

The school, funded and delivered by Milton Keynes Council, will be a new build and operate from a site on the Oakgrove development.

Some of the features of the new school include a purpose-built nursery and foundation stage area, specialist teaching room, two halls and a full kitchen enabling hot meals to be cooked and served on site.

It will also include a range of outside play and teaching spaces and ample drop off parking for parents.

The Kingsbridge Educational Trust, established by Oakgrove and Middleton primary schools to oversee this development, is holding an information evening, starting at 6.30pm on July 8 at Oakgrove for prospective pupils and parents.

Cllr Norman Miles, cabinet member responsible for children and school improvement, said: "This is a very ambitious project which will make a real difference to young people's education in the Oakgrove area and demonstrates how effectively we can work in partnership with schools."

'Disgusted': Collette Van Hien, wearing a wig, outside McDonald's in Denbigh

Staff laugh at cancer patient

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A WOMAN with throat cancer has told MK NEWS that she is 'disgusted' it took months to receive a sincere apology after staff at McDonald's laughed at her bald head.

Collette Van Hien from Bradville visited the restaurant near stadiummk in Denbigh in February when two members of staff 'sniggered' at her for having no hair.

After being diagnosed with lymphoma last year, Miss Van Hien had lost her hair after undergoing chemotherapy.

"Losing my hair was tough," she said, adding that the 'distressing experience' at McDonald's led her to take up counselling sessions.

She said that after asking staff 'What are you laughing at?' a female member of staff replied 'We were laughing at your hair.'

Disgusted by the response, Miss Van Hien asked to speak to the manager – only to be told they were away on a course.

Determined to receive a sincere apology, a meeting was set up with the manager who, according to Miss Van Hien, failed to turn up.

Three months after the incident, she received a letter of apology from customer services, along with a good-will gesture of £20 worth of McDonald's vouchers.

Miss Van Hien added: "All I want is a sincere apology and for McDonald's to recognise that laughing at a customer with cancer can have some serious effects. It took months to even receive adequate acknowledgement. The stress and upset caused by this incident has cost me in phone calls, petrol and even counselling sessions.

"They treated the matter as a standard complaint. It's like I have been treated the same as a customer complaining about having no egg in their burger.

"Do they honestly believe that £20 worth of vouchers will solve it? I have been treated terribly. They can't just fob me off with free food."

A spokesman for McDonald's said: "Following the customer complaint made, we investigated the allegations of which we have taken very seriously.

"The customer has been in on several occasions to speak with us, where we have apologised profusely for the upset caused."

Why no discussion?

ONCE again, as is the usual Lib Dem policy, a local Focus flyer informs us that the council has agreed to install a crossing on the V10 grid road, due to pressure from our Monkston/Kents Hill local Lib Dems.

Once again, no mention of this was made to most of us living within this area and, once again, no discussion or proper thought has been put into this proposal. Why is it we are never informed of anything in advance by these people? It seems to be the Lib Dem non democratic way!

The V10 is busy and has become a main link from Bletchley to Kingston, M1, the Open University and Central MK. How absurd and how dangerous to put a crossing on a main grid link.

Options should be discussed properly with the people of this area and actually the people of Milton Keynes. Grid roads are protected, aren't they?

A bridge or an underpass would be far safer and far more suitable for the vast amount of traffic using this road.

A discussion please – with all of the people involved.

We share redways

I READ with concern the two letters published in last week's paper which leaned towards a belligerent attitude to cyclists.

Sadly, we do not live in a perfect world and incidents do happen. In nearly 40 years of local cycling, I have been bitten twice and brought off twice. All my children and grandchildren have an unnatural fear of dogs resulting from disturbing experiences when infants from free roaming dogs.

In spite of this, I have found the majority of dog owners adopt a responsible position when walking their dogs.

At the same time I have to say, just as with dog owners, there is an irresponsible minority of cyclists. The rules are quite clear as laid out in the current Milton Keynes Council Redway Guide. Dogs should not foul the redway and should be kept on a short lead to prevent entangling, ie no long leads and certainly never without a lead.

Cyclists and pedestrians should never be more than two abreast. Cyclists are asked to give consideration to other redway users by a bell or by other form of audible warning, the latter taking into account that a bell is not legally necessary on a cycle, in spite of common belief.

Drivers of mobility vehicles, electric bicycles users and driverless pods are not covered by the Redway Code – perhaps we need some rules for them as well.

The redway was designed for a maximum cycling speed of 12mph, which poor maintenance of surfacing and adjacent and overhanging landscaping and lack of redway junction priorities largely forces most experienced cyclists to keep to.

However, there are still a small number of cyclists who ride far too fast for safety.

I would urge cyclists to keep left and pedestrians right on the redway. Milton Keynes Council should give serious thought to painting white give way or stop lines at junctions where several redways meet or intersect.

It is good to see the redways being so well used but we have to learn to respect each others' needs. A copy of the redway map and code through every letterbox would help.

Cyclists go too fast

YOUR correspondent J Langford (MK NEWS, June 10) complains about dogs on redways being a danger to cyclists particularly.

I walk my dogs twice a day along the canal and can assure J Langford it is the dogs and pedestrians most in danger from the cyclists; they come hurtling past at 15-20mph without warning, scaring both my dogs and myself.

I cannot hear a modern bike until it is too late and the riders rarely sound a warning. I often shout out 'why don't you ring your bell?' and if they answer it is to say that they do not have one.

They also come down off of the bridges at great speed without a thought as to who may be on the redway just around the bend.

My wife has been run into on the towpath and of course these people have no insurance. They also ignore 'cyclists dismount' signs on bridges or narrow paths.

I have no axe to grind since I cycle myself, as well as riding motorcycles and driving a car, but so many cyclists totally ignore both the law and commonsense.

Mark's Monthly Focus

Helping MK people buy their own homes

THE Government's Help to Buy scheme is a huge opportunity for cities across the country to kick start the much needed expansion of affordable homes.

Too many young people are trapped in rented property due to the excessive deposits.

But, I am delighted to say that new figures released earlier this week show the scheme has helped 423 families to buy their own home in MK – a tremendous achievement.

There are two components to the Help to Buy scheme – the Mortgage Guarantee and the Equity Loan Scheme.

The Equity Loan scheme is open to all who wish to own a new build home.

The Government provides buyers with an equity loan of up to 20 per cent of the value of a new build property, repayable once the home is sold. This will help support up to 74,000 home buyers, as well as boosting the UK's construction sector.

The mortgage guarantees will help those who can afford the mortgage payments but not the deposit. The scheme is open for houses up to a price cap of £600,000. The buyer would only need a five per cent deposit.

The Government then guarantees up to 15 per cent of the property's value, in return for a fee paid by the lender. Only repayment mortgages will be offered by the scheme, underpinned by tough checks on the buyers to ensure they can afford the payments.

Earlier this year, Planning Minister Nick Boles MP visited the Brooklands site in East MK. As most of you will know, the Brooklands development is the largest residential site within the eastern expansion area of MK.

Phase one of the development is complete with people moved in. Phase two is now underway. Eventually, Brooklands will provide more than 2,500 houses and apartments, as well as commercial space, three new schools, shops, leisure facilities and a 30-acre park.

It was great to demonstrate to Nick the 'can do' attitude we have here in Milton Keynes by delivering new affordable housing.

As the home of 'I before E' or 'infrastructure before expansion', I stressed to him the importance of building key infrastructure such as Brooklands Primary School first, something we must continue to do as the city of Milton Keynes expands.

We have made good headway with our infrastructure, now it is time for housing to match this ambition.

Tasty treats: The Brownies earned their cook badges at the event, organised by John Lewis

Brownies take the biscuit

BROWNIES from 1st Oxley Park turned into cookie monsters as they got their hands messy at John Lewis in the centre:mk.

The junior bakers took part in the retailer's Bringing Skills to Life scheme.

Guided by John Lewis Milton Keynes' home economist Mary Anne, the 36 Brownies, along with helpers, learned how to make chocolate chip cookie pops to secure their cook badges.

Paul Hunt, managing director at John Lewis Milton Keynes, said: "The John Lewis Milton Keynes team were delighted to have the chance to support the 1st Oxley Park Brownies.

"Our aim with the Bringing Skills to Life education programme is to encourage children's practical skills through fun and interesting activities and this event did just that."

Racers causing havoc for staff

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

NETWORK Rail workers are 'fed up' that nothing is being done to tackle anti-social youths racing around car parks outside The Quadrant.

The 'cruisers' congregate outside the office in Elder Gate and have been accused of racing around car parks, leaving tyre marks, starting fires and intimidating staff.

This weekend it is believed they broke a barrier into the car park, pictured inset.

That was the final straw for workers, who are disappointed they are receiving no help from the council.

Eddie Collins, workplace manager at Network Rail, told MK NEWS: "We are fed up and nothing seems to be done. The council begged us to come to the city and now we need help they seem reluctant to help us."

Eddie believes introducing measures such as traffic humps could help and claims that offers for Network Rail to pay for them have been turned down.

Melanie Beck, the city centre manager who represents businesses, added: "They are wreaking havoc and it's an accident waiting to happen."

Colin Wilderspin, head of community safety at MK Council, said: "Criminal damage was reported over the weekend. We will continue to work with partners to explore potential solutions."

Thames Valley Police had failed to send over a comment by the time we went to print.

On song: Members of the Diamond Theatre School sang wartime tunes at the ceremony

Support for Armed Forces

RESIDENTS joined councillors to show their support for our Armed Forces on Monday.

The Armed Forces Day flag was officially raised by Mayor Keith McLean at the Civic Offices to mark the beginning of Armed Forces Week.

Council leader Pete Marland spoke to the crowd, members of Milton Keynes Pipe Band accompanied Cllr McLean's announcement and there was entertainment from the Diamond Theatre School.

Armed Forces Week, running until Sunday, gives everyone the opportunity to show support for troops. Cllr McLean said: "Showing support provides a much valued morale boost for the troops and their families.

"They protect and keep the peace across the world so that we can all feel safe and secure in our homes and is only right for us to salute their efforts."

'Will cause of fatal fire ever be found?'

BY JAMES AVERILL AND SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE cause of a fire that killed a woman in her farmhouse home may 'never be found' one of her closest friends fears.

Kate Morgan was killed when a blaze gutted the Old Rectory Farmhouse in School Lane, Loughton, on January 3 this year.

An inquest was held at Milton Keynes Coroners Court in Crownhill yesterday to determine a cause of death, but was adjourned by assistant deputy coroner Dr Sean Cummings so more tests could be carried out on her body.

Close friend Giles Waddington was present at the inquest. His bid for answers was unresolved as, although the court was told Kate was a chain smoker, they could find no evidence a cigarette caused the 1,000-degree fire, or any evidence of an electrical fault.

Giles told MK NEWS: "I'm not sure we'll ever find out what happened.

"Kate's death was incredibly upsetting and I fear the cause of her death will remain a mystery. I'm not sure if someone deliberately set fire to the house but it has crossed my mind as a possibility.

"I just want some answers so I can organise a respectful funeral for her."

Kate was a close companion of Giles' aunt, Rita Price-Jones, a respected dog breeder who originally employed her as a kennel maid. When Mrs Price-Jones became bedridden later in life, she was cared for by Kate. She died in 2011.

Giles added: "I visited the house to retrieve my aunt's ashes. It was very distressing to see how badly it was damaged. It used to be such a grand house."

No new date has yet been set to complete the inquest.

Bogus school's head faces jail

BY SAMANTHA BOOTH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE director of a bogus business school in the city has been warned she could be sent to prison after being convicted of offering fake degrees and facilities which did not exist at her school.

Magistrates were told on Friday that Tina Beloveth-Powerful, 47, published misleading details on the website for The Everest School of Transformational Leadership, based at her home in North Third Street, CMK.

Hannah Tildesley, prosecuting, said facilities featured on the website included 'well-equipped computer labs and a library' and bank details for payments for courses were listed.

Powerful, who was defending herself, told the court she had a 'mini library' and thought 'the school was well equipped'. She argued the website contained information on her bank details and degrees as 'it was part of the planning process', adding she had 'no intention' to charge money or mislead anyone.

Guilty: Tina Beloveth-Powerful outside Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court on Friday

She said she worked with Leon Goldman, who was dealing with degree accreditation for the school. However, Ms Tildesley told the court Mr Goldman was not a director and said Powerful has done 'nothing to get herself accredited' in three years.

Powerful had pleaded not guilty to offences of being a trader engaged in a commercial practice which is a misleading action containing false information, engaging in a commercial practice which is a misleading omission and offering to grant an invitation relating to a degree award at an earlier court appearance. On Friday, magistrate Kay Morton said: "We do not find in her evidence the enterprise was still in the planning stages."

Powerful is due to be sentenced at the same court on Friday, July 10. She was told she could face up to 36 weeks in jail and was granted unconditional bail.

The school, which was originally called Havard, was renamed Everest in October after Powerful was sued by Harvard University in America for breaching its copyright due to the similar name.

Planning starts as MK nears 50

editor@mk-new.co.uk

MILTON Keynes is turning 50 in 2017 and plans for the big birthday celebrations are already underway.

Milton Keynes Council is hosting the MK50 Presentation and Discussion Session at Acorn House on July 8 from 2-4.15pm to present aims and plans for the anniversary.

On January 23, a formal ceremony is provisionally scheduled to mark the date when Milton Keynes was officially designated as a new town.

A 50-day festival of events and community celebrations is then planned to start on June 23.

Council leader Pete Marland said: "We will be working hard to ensure we have a fantastic line up of events in 2017 that celebrate our history and look forward to our future, in what will be an historic year for the city."

The city's mayor Councillor Keith McLean added: "As most people know, Milton Keynes is playing a key part as a host city in this year's huge Rugby World Cup. Speaking as a big sports fan in general, I'm looking forward to seeing our borough celebrate its half century."

MK NEWS put forward our ideas on our website – www.mkweb.co.uk – such as building a landmark or a monorail and invited readers to send in their suggestions.

Malwatt commented: "Why stop at a monorail? A PRT (Private Rapid Transport) system would reduce congestion even more than a monorail."

Robertmit wrote: "I think a theme park would be ideal."

GoodPoint commented: "I reckon they should make a bigger and better Point, at least four times bigger and a lot taller."

Emma Walters suggested a 'festival', while Steve Bottomley thinks a carnival should be held.

Sweet life

A KEEN baker from Stacey Bushes has spent 16 years making savoury and sweet treats at Milton Keynes Museum.

Diane Roder, 72, has baked more than 19,200 goodies in her time running the The Granary Tea Rooms.

The former cookery teacher said: "I love it mostly because of the enjoyment it gives other people."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Fears over road safety at school

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MUM from has voiced her fears over road safety after her daughter was almost run over on her way to school.

Fiona Flaherty, who has children in years two and foundation at Oxley Park Academy, has shared her concerns with local politicians.

The 39-year-old from Oxley Park said: "It is hard to imagine how planning was ever approved for the narrow roads with no pavements which make up a large proportion of this estate but that is unchangeable.

"We walk to school every day, in all weathers, from our house in Harlow Crescent. One day last week my four-year-old daughter was within millimetres of being knocked down by a car.

"We were crossing the road where the dropped curb is for crossing with a buggy. The car was reversing quickly and it was only me shouting that stopped it from hitting her."

Mrs Flaherty has outlined proposals to try to fix the situation. They include two-hour parking restrictions at Oxley Park Local Centre, a one-way system from Redgrave Drive, Cushing Drive and Harlow Crescent onto the end of the H6, yellow lines and the employment of a lollipop crossing patrol.

Fina Flaherty outlined proposals to improve safety in Oxley Park

"I have spoken to a few people and they have had near misses as well," said Mrs Flaherty. "I suggested setting up a walking bus scheme to the school but the success will depend on how many parents volunteer."

Tattenhoe councillor Edith Bald said: "Ward councillors are very concerned about these issues and were on site with the council's schools safety officer to discuss solutions several weeks ago. I can assure residents that we will be taking further action."

Academy principle Cathy Higgins delined to comment but addressed the issue in her blog.

She wrote: "In order to try and reduce the volume of traffic around school in the mornings, we are investigating the possibility of reintroducing a 'walking bus'."

MP for Milton Keynes South Iain Stewart said: "I'm aware of the situation and looking into it."

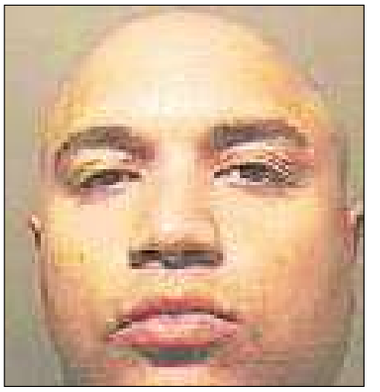
Dealer is put in jail for almost 10 years



See footage of the moment Douglas' car flips over during the pursuit on our website mkweb.co.uk/news

'Prolific' drug dealer: Marvin Doulgas has been put behind bars

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A LARGE-SCALE Class A drug dealer from Milton Keynes and his accomplice have been jailed for more than 16 years.

Marvin Douglas, previously of Hidcote Drive, Westcroft, was arrested after crashing his Volkswagen Scirocco while trying to escape from police on the A1 in Bedfordshire on September 23, 2014.

The car ended up on its roof and Douglas was found to have crack cocaine with a street value of £32,000 in his possession, as well as £20,000 in cash.

He was sentenced to nine years and nine months at St Albans Crown Court for his role in supplying cocaine and heroin in Bedfordshire and Northamptonshire.

Douglas' number two, Lee Dixon, 31, of Williamson Road, Kempston, Bedford, was sentenced to six years and six months after being caught with cash and cocaine when officers raided his home on October 15, 2014.

After sentencing, Detective Inspector Paul Baron, from Bedfordshire Police's Serious and Organised Crime Unit, said: "Douglas is a prolific drug dealer who has persistently continued his criminality despite being previously jailed.

"Douglas and Dixon were supplying and distributing a large amount of Class A drugs which blights communities and brings a range of associated crime."

Both men were linked through forensics and phone records to a drugs safe house at Bywater House in Harlinger Street, Woolwich, on March 5, 2014, where police seized import-purity cocaine and £19,740.

They had pleaded guilty to conspiracy to supply cocaine between February 1, 2014 and November 21, 2014 at an earlier court hearing.

In addition, Douglas admitted dangerous driving and possessing criminal property, as well as conspiracy to supply heroin between June 28 and October 15, 2014.

LGBT club night is hottest ticket in city

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

Party: An LGBT event at The Galleon pub is fast becoming popular

A MEMBERS-ONLY night is fast becoming the hottest ticket in the city among the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) community.

Running from 9pm-late on the last Saturday of every month at The Galleon Pub in Wolverton, Exclusive is hoping to establish itself as the primary destination for LGBT customers.

The night was established in March and has already attracted more than 150 members. Membership is £5 for the year, which guarantees entry to every event in that period.

Members are allowed to bring two guests, although they will be required to pay £5 each for admission.

Sean Porter, an organiser and promoter for Exclusive, is pleased with the progress.

He said: "We still need to have a place where people can call their own and not be frightened to be themselves.

"You can come and have fun, be yourself in a safe and secure environment."

The DJ is Jamie Bond, formerly of Pink Punters, and Exclusive frequently plans themed nights. Disco Inferno was a nod to Saturday Night Fever, while the Rocky Horror night was also well received.

Exclusive's next event on Saturday is themed as a Beach Party, with further nights titled Splash and Club Tropicana scheduled.

Wolverton's Black Sheep Collective also make appearances to create a more engaging experience.

For example, fire-breathers wowed partygoers at the Rocky Horror night.

Mr Porter is confident Exclusive will expand in future.

Find out more at Exclusive's Facebook page at www.facebook.com/ExclusiveLGBT?_rdr or visit its website – www.exclusivelgbt.co.uk/

‘Lotto win’ teen: It was all a joke

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

TEEN Tesco worker Bradley McCluskie has ‘sincerely apologised’ after admitting his £1.8million Lotto win was a hoax.

Last week, the youngster tweeted a screen grab showing £1,810,914 deposited into an online bank.

Red lines blurred the account details on the image, which showed the seven-figure sum from The National Lottery at the top.

The message was accompanied with the words ‘Won the lottery #Bye’.

Twitter and Facebook users congratulated the teen, who followed up his initial tweet by asking followers whether he should buy a Lamborghini or Ferrari with his winnings.

One friend, Enzo (@enzoseminerio) replied: “My boy ain’t working with me at Tesco any more.”

The National Lottery was unable to confirm the win to MK NEWS.

But in a direct message to this newspaper’s Twitter account, the teenager admitted it was a ‘prank between friends’ and ‘sincerely apologised’.

He has since made his Twitter page private preventing anyone other than followers to view his posts.

The youngster has yet to respond to MK NEWS’ requests for a comment.

The story had many readers talking on Twitter and Facebook with people offering advice.

Samantha Jane Coster wrote on our Facebook page: “Congrats to him.

“I do however hope he has a good set of parents trying to steer him right or that will be gone on nothing in six months!”

New gym opens

RESIDENTS joined councillors to celebrate the official opening of the new gym at Middleton Pool in Newport Pagnell last Wednesday.

The revamp, carried out by Places for People, has ‘vastly improved’ the facilities on offer, according to duty manager Jake Hibble. Testing out the facilities in Tickford Street was the town’s mayor Phil Winsor who, after cutting the ribbon, said: “It’s good to see and will help young people become more active.”

Group has to leave MK to get naked

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

CITY naturists are urging people interested in finding out more about the lifestyle to join them – fully clothed if they wish.

MK Meet and Greet (MK MAG) is a group of local naturists who get together socially.

Although the group firmly believes in naturism, their meetings in Milton Keynes – held on the third Sunday of every month – are fully-clothed affairs at the Wetherspoons pub in Midsummer Boulevard.

The group have to travel out of Milton Keynes to attend naturist venues in the summer months – with the nearest club in St Albans.

The possibility of setting up such a venue in Milton Keynes would depend on getting more recruits.

Roy Snell, 64, who runs the group, told MK NEWS: "We are just people who go about our daily business, but wherever possible we choose not to wear clothes.

"We find it liberating as well as healthier, plus there's less washing to do!

"We would welcome new people getting involved and we would need that to explore any possibility of setting up a club."

One person from MK who uses the group is Ray Stoner, along with his wife Maggie.

He said: "Some condemn us as weirdos, but it's a different way of life. If everyone became one, there would be no more conflict as naked people don't fight one another – you would look foolish."

The inaugural event was held behind the Church of Christ the Cornerstone

Midsummer picnic a first

THE inaugural Fred Roche Gardens Midsummer Picnic took place behind the Church of Christ the Cornerstone on Friday.

Musicians included Nancy Okai, Sian Magill, pictured, and Georgia Moore, while there was also a performance of Jerusalem from the Chase Choir, featuring local soprano Emily Haig.

The event coincided with National Picnic Week and featured a hog roast, donuts, sandwiches, a Pimms tent and an ice cream van.

IS YOUR FINAL SALARY PENSION SCHEME BAD FOR YOUR WEALTH?

It has long been a commonly held view that so called final salary pension schemes are sacrosanct. They are generally regarded as gold-plated and secure. However, since the new Pensions Freedom rules were introduced by the government on 6 April the whole ball game has changed significantly.

One of the many pensions changes introduced was the ability to not only leave your money purchase pension to your spouse but also to other members of your family such as children and grandchildren. This means that if you want your pension to survive you and benefit your family you can now do so because your pension need not die with you.

The problem with final salary pensions is that like annuities they die with you. Pretty much the best you can hope for is that your final salary pension scheme will provide a 50% widow's/widower's pension on your death. On the second of your deaths it dies with you. This is particularly pertinent if it is a large pension.

We have a male client who is in his fifties with a wife and children. He has a company final salary pension scheme worth c.£900K.

Tony Byrne
Managing Director
Wealth And Tax Management

In the last year he has been diagnosed with cancer and although he has recently been given the all clear his life expectancy will probably be much reduced. He is quite wealthy and has other large pensions so retirement income is going to be plentiful in any case.

We did a cashflow forecast comparing the income from his final salary scheme with that from a personal pension based on the pension transfer value offered by his previous employer's pension scheme. We assumed investment growth of just 5% p.a. in a new personal pension. Staggeringly for all time periods up to and way past retirement his and his widow's personal pension income was no worse than the income from his final salary pension scheme would have been. More importantly the value of his personal pension fund did not fall much at all in value! This means that his family in this situation would have been substantially better off to the tune of nearly £900K! He decided to transfer his pension preferring the "bird in the hand" approach.

Please do bear in mind this is just one isolated case. Every client's situation is different. Professional advice is essential.

OAPs 'stranded' by bus changes

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS at a sheltered housing complex have started a petition after being left 'stranded' by cuts to bus services.

Arriva has split the number four service – which ran from Bletchley to Wolverton, past Radcote Lodge in Two Mile Ash – and created the number 14, which runs from Wolverton and through Two Mile Ash to the hospital.

It has also reduced the number of buses an hour from three to two and residents have started a petition, which currently has 62 signatures.

Radcote resident Kathline Pearce, 86, said the changes mean she now has to swap buses at The Point in CMK to get to Bletchley.

She said: "Why does it take over an hour to get from Two Mile Ash to Bletchley?

"It feels like you are going on holiday the amount of time it takes. I feel as if I'm stranded. You could once get a bus all the way through to Wolverton but you just can't anymore."

Councillor Robin Bradburn with residents from Radcote Lodge

Arriva and ward councillors from the area are due to hold a meeting on Tuesday to discuss the issue.

Resident Valentine Eggleton, 85, who relies on the service, said: "You have to over plan now. I had an appointment at the hospital at 10.30am and I had to leave earlier in order to get there on time with all the different buses.

"It has not made it a better service. The people in the offices need to take a ride around and see what it is like."

A spokesman for Arriva said: "The decision to change the four service was not taken lightly and only done after much analysis of passenger journey information.

"The two new routes have improved that situation, in no way was this a cost-cutting exercise as we have actually added additional resource into the cycle by adding an extra bus."

Bradwell councillor Robin Bradburn will attend the meeting and said he was hoping for a 'positive' outcome.

Datis' new venture

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MAN who gave up his job in the city is set to release what is thought to be the first ever beer brewed using solar energy.

Bucks Star Brewery is the brain child of Datis Gol, who after two-and-a-half years of working at Barclays, followed his passion and started up his own craft beer company in Stonebridge.

"It all started when I became curious about the difference between the lager you see in shops and the ales and beers you find in bars and pubs," said the 33-year-old. "Understanding the difference between them aroused curiosity in me. At the time I had left my job in London and returned to Milton Keynes, my hometown.

"After a few months I wasn't doing anything and became curious about the idea of local beer and started researching, doing courses and learning as much as possible."

One of the key features of the brewing process is that all its energy comes via solar panels on the roof, which have been fitted by the company based next to his business, Envirolution.

He said: "We could be the first microbrewery working on solar panels. I am very eco conscious and I admire those businesses that take a sustainable view on their business and if you can do it than why not do it?

"There are also incentives. The Government provides incentives for using solar panels because you get paid for the power you produce but we can use that energy free of charge.

"I try to run the business in a way where we use most energy in the day when it is light and reduce the energy usage during the evening.

"We have to use a common sense approach, it is fairly simple and straightforward."

The company, which is two years old, is almost ready to take its product to market. It will also feature in a film, currently in post-production.

Both the beer and owner are also set to feature in 2025 Films' 2025, where Datis plays a detective.

If you're curious about the name, the word Bucks is taken from Buckinghamshire, while the word Star was chosen as it is used as by many craft beers.

"I had the idea of Bucks Star at the moment I became curious about beer," added Mr Gol, who lives in Walnut Tree.

He had his first business idea when he was at school and he set up a recording studio at the age of 15.

But after admitting he was probably 'too immature' to run the company, he focused on his studies and completed a law degree at Northampton before finishing a masters at University College London.

Young director to take Hollie film to festivals

Carl Mason with Hollie Carter, who inspired the film

A 17-YEAR-OLD director from Shenley Brook End is entering his movie, Imagine, into national film festivals with hopes of being nominated for an award.

Carl Mason's debut film, inspired by the Hope for Hollie Foundation, follows the story of Millie who suffers rare, incurable disease Niemann Pick Type C.

The film has been entered into competitions, including the British Independent Film Festival and Edinburgh Film Festival.

Carl said: "We are getting the film out there by doing this and hope to be nominated."

Life stories to help form Living Archive

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

LIVING Archive Milton Keynes is helping elderly people to feel less isolated by asking them to reflect on their lives.

By talking to trained volunteers, OAPs living alone, in care homes, in palliative care, or suffering from dementia will have the chance to uncover and extract the important milestones in their lives as part of the group's Lifelines scheme.

Eighty-nine-year-old Barbara Bennett, who lives at Shenley Wood Retirement Village, has been one of the first to tell her life story.

She said: "I enjoyed telling my story. You don't often get to talk about yourself for so long, do you?

"The best thing was remembering things that I'd forgotten or hadn't thought were interesting to anybody else."

Barbara's son John Bennett, added: "I think this project is fantastic, because not everyone is a writer and writing can take time and skill, whereas everyone has the skill of conversation.

"In Australia [where John currently lives] the knowledge of aboriginal elders is appreciated, whereas here older people are forgotten and so much has been lost".

The outcome of the project will be a series of recordings produced as CDs for the interviewees and their families to keep.

50mph speed limit on the A5

Pair's pedal power

BROTHERS aged just five and seven started an 80-mile bike ride for the Ride for Willen campaign on Sunday.

Connor and Fraser MacArthur, from Olney, will be riding 10 miles a day over the next eight days and have already raised £1,400 in just two weeks for Willen Hospice.

Their father Pat, 42, will be riding with them on the challenge.

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

NARROW lanes and a 50mph speed limit will be imposed on a busy duel carriageway while roadworks are carried out.

The restrictions will be in place for 17 weeks on the A5 from the Old Stratford roundabout to the Kelly's Kitchen roundabout south of Bletchley while improvements are being made to the safety barrier.

A public notice stating works will begin from as early as Monday has been issued by Highways England, which is responsible for the work.

However, a spokesman has moved to reassure motorists there will be no roadworks taking place when the British Grand Prix is held in Silverstone.

Part of the A43 is usually shut on the weekend of the Grand Prix, which places additional strain on the A5 during the first weekend in July.

They said: "Work will not be clashing with the Grand Prix and it won't be starting until after then."

Work to improve safety on the road will only take place from 10pm until 6am but the speed limits will be in force over a 24-hour period.

At various points throughout that time, roundabouts will be shut at night as well, which include those at Old Stratford, Abbey Hill, Redmoor and Kelly's Kitchen.

There will also be phased closures of all slip roads leading to and from the A5 between Old Stratford and Kelly's Kitchen roundabouts.

When slip roads are closed, traffic will be diverted to the nearest slip road and told to double back in order for them to get off at the junction they need to.

You could make a difference to a child or young person's life

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who can offer a safe and loving home for a child/young person in care. We are especially seeking carers for teenagers. As a Milton Keynes Council foster carer you will be provided with a generous allowance plus support and training.

Our foster carers come from all walks of life and across a diverse community. They offer children and young people a nurturing, caring home environment where they can begin to thrive and reach their full potential.

It's a challenging role; one which will always ask for a great deal of input and support from you. However in providing a home to a child/young person who is unable to live with their family for a period of time you will be creating a wonderful experience for everyone involved.

A chance to savour Art of Food Festival

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THIS year Art in the Park is welcoming the Art of Food Festival for its second year, with nail-biting competitions and demonstrations by chefs.

In this year's public competition on Saturday, July 18, budding chefs will have just 15 minutes to cook a plate of food that demonstrates flair, creativity and technique.

The winner will receive a signed book by celebrity chef Cyrus Todiwala OBE, who has featured in the BBC's The Incredible Spice Men and MasterChef.

The competition is open to everyone, regardless of age, experience, style or culinary background and, most importantly, to those who want to have a go and have fun.

On Sunday, July 19, events get fast, frenetic and fun with the College Challenge.

Three teams of catering students from Milton Keynes College, Bedford College and Cambridge Regional College, will compete against each other in a series of challenges designed to test their culinary abilities to the max.

Tasty: The Art of Food Festival returns to the city for second year

These include cooking a two-egg omelette at speed, identifying ingredients by taste and smell alone and a cook-off using a box of mystery ingredients.

Over the weekend there will also be demonstrations by two of the UK's most exciting and inspiring chefs – Rob Kennedy, executive chef at the world-famous Royal Military Academy Sandhurst, and Steve Walpole, who has 20 years' experience in the food industry.

The event is part of the Art in the Park Festival, organised by the Milton Keynes Islamic Arts and Heritage Culture (MKIAC), which will also include storytelling, visual artists and a parade through the city centre.

The event, which is being supported by MK NEWS and MKWeb, will take place throughout July 18 and 19 in Campbell Park.

yspa

ARE you having trouble sleeping or feeling stressed? Do you need to lift your mood or boost your energy?

If so the new Wellbeing spa treatments by Neom Organics, being launched at Y Spa, Wyboston Lakes, on July 1, could be the answer.

You pick one of the four treatments on offer by smelling each of the essential oil candles designed to target sleep, stress, energy or mood. The smell you are most drawn to is the treatment you will receive.

I picked out the de-stress treatment, which began with meditation followed by a full body massage using melted oil from the candle, which felt pleasantly warm rather than hot. The oil was soothing and left my skin feeling soft for days afterwards. The massage was delightfully relaxing and I did feel calmer for a couple of days.

When I left I received a miniature Neom gift box so I could continue to use the oils and scents to instantly de-stress at home.

The Neom Wellbeing treatment is one of the best I have had – it felt more like an experience than a treatment and whichever one you choose, you will leave feeling truly pampered.

MUSE'S new album Drones has now spent two weeks atop the UK album charts – and with good reason, writes James Averill.

The concept album focuses on the journey of a human who loses hope, falls to the dark forces and becomes a 'drone' before managing to wrestle his freedom back and defect to liberty.

It's an interesting concept for sure, with lead singer Matt Bellamy describing it as a 'modern metaphor for losing empathy'.

What makes its chart topping even more impressive is the fact that the band had pretty much released two-thirds of the album on YouTube prior to the release date. Psycho and Reapers show off the band as a three-piece once more after a decade of experimentation, while Mercy and Revolt hark back to the days of Black Holes and Revelations, with a killer bass riff from Chris Wolstenholme and catchy piano accompaniment.

The album may be about losing hope – but Drones will leave Muse fans hoping for more. 4/5

What Your Agent Has To Say

Open House going above and beyond

ESTATE agents have a tough time of it. In the public eye they are long on unfulfilled promises and possibly in the same league with bankers and politicians.

They are not all like that, clients at Open House Bedford, including landlords, vendors, buyers and tenants, always experience an up-close and personal service. The Open House office is situated centrally in Broadway House where customers can just drop in for a chat. Open House also supports the local community, sponsoring local schools, clubs and funding charities.

Local business owners Billy Gill and Mujahid Ali, directors at Open House, have decades of property experience both in the London and Bedford market.

Both partners work closely with clients from start to finish to ensure their most valuable investment is one that is right, well managed and reaps financial rewards.

Mujahid said: "The Bedford property market is buoyant right now, which has a strong correlation with the uprise in the London property market. We are seeing more investors and families looking to relocate and invest in Bedford."

For anyone who is thinking of selling or letting a property, there's never been a better time. For impartial advice on selling or letting a property call Billy or Ali on 01234 364000.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (V7 SAXON STREET (PART), MILTON KEYNES) (40 MPH SPEED RESTRICTIONS) ORDER 2015
THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (V7 SAXON STREET JUNCTION WITH THE NORTHERN ENTRANCE TO DENBIGH NORTH) (PROHIBITION OF RIGHT TURN) ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 23rd June 2015 made two Orders under Sections 1, 2 and 84 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. The proposed Orders will affect all classes of vehicles and have the following effect along parts of roads in Central Milton Keynes:-

- The introduction of 40 mph speed restriction along V7 Saxon Street
- The introduction of no right turn manoeuvres at the junction of V7 Saxon Street and the northern entrance to Denbigh North Exemptions from the proposed Order include emergency service vehicles and military vehicles on operational duties.

The Orders will come into effect from 29th June 2015.

Copies of the made Orders together with a map showing the areas referred to along with a statement of reason for proposing the Orders, may be inspected during opening hours at Milton Keynes Library, 555 Silbury Boulevard, Central Milton Keynes and Bletchley Library, Westfield Road, Bletchley and during normal office hours at Milton Keynes Council, Civic Offices, 1 Saxon Gate East, Milton Keynes. Please quote reference PH-S1-TRO-119.

Any person wishing to question the validity of the Order or any provision contained in the Order on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act, or on the grounds that any requirement of the Act or any Instrument made under the Act has not been compiled with may, within six weeks from the date on which the Order was made, apply to the High Court for that purpose.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (A509 (PART), OLNEY) (TEMPORARY 30 MPH SPEED LIMIT) ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes intends in not less than 7 days from the date of this Notice, to make an order under Section 14(4) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, the effect of which is to temporarily prohibit vehicles from proceeding along part of A509, Olney at a speed in excess of 30 mph, whilst the Olney Duck and Raft Race Event takes place, because of the likelihood of danger to the public. It is anticipated that the temporary speed restriction will be in effect from 12.30pm to 3.00pm, and the affected length of road is as follows:-

- A509 from a point 75 metres south-west of its junction with Lime Street, Olney, continuing for a distance of 450 metres in a south-westerly direction

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of the proposed order, other than for emergency services vehicles, and military vehicles whilst being driven on operational duties.

The temporary speed restriction will be clearly signed in accordance with Chapter 8 of the Traffic Signs Manual.

The proposed Order will come into operation at 6.00am on Sunday 5th July 2015 and the restrictions will be in force on the dates and at the times shown above and when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs.

Any person committing a breach of the proposed order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (DAWSON ROAD (PART), MOUNT FARM) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 23rd June 2015 made an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, the effect of which will be to temporarily prohibit vehicles from entering, waiting or proceeding along that part of the westbound carriageway of Dawson Road, Mount Farm from its junction with V7 Saxon Street for a distance of 20 metres in an easterly direction. The closure is necessary to prevent congestion at this junction whilst the construction works for the new junction on V7 Saxon Street are being carried out. It is anticipated that the temporary closure will be in effect on 29th June 2015 and will remain in effect until 22nd August 2015.

Enhanced Jaguar XJ Resets Standards

Priced from £58,690 on-the-road, the XJ, Jaguar's all-aluminium luxury saloon, is more desirable than ever. Subtle changes to the exterior design, accentuated by full LED headlights, add to the XJ's already distinctive looks. Materials such as semi-aniline leather and inlay veneers enhance an interior already considered the most luxurious in the segment, culminating in the new Autobiography model.

Matching this traditional craftsmanship is state-of-the-art technology, including a new infotainment system. InControl Touch Pro offers features such as door-to-door navigation and 1,300W Meridian digital audio system.

The driving experience is better than ever, thanks to a V6 diesel engine which offers more power and torque and less fuel consumption and CO2 emissions, and an electric power-assisted steering system that enhances Jaguar's reputation for unrivalled agility and responsiveness.

The new XJ features a larger, more upright grille, while sculpted chrome blades in the outboard air intakes emphasise the car's mature, prestigious character.

The full LED headlights accentuate the 'quad lamp' design feature that Jaguar sporting sedans have made their own. They are further enhanced with active front steer and static bend lamp functions, and auto high beam assist. LED headlights also provide a colour temperature closer to that of daylight than Bi-Xenon lamps, improving visibility and driver comfort, and are also more energy-efficient. Twin 'J-Blade' daytime running lights are a unique feature to XJ, befitting its status in the Jaguar saloon car range. The white light instantly and seamlessly changes to orange when the direction indicator is operated.

The LED rear lights feature a new J-signature tail and position light graphic, making the XJ even more distinctive. The rear bumper now features a gloss black valance and a slender chrome insert. New LED taillights and oval exhaust finishers complete the look.

The XJ's peerless interior design has been taken to the next level. So luxurious has it become that the outgoing Portfolio trim is now used for the Premium Luxury model. The new Portfolio gains quilted soft-grain leather seats with diamond stitching and embossed headrests, and figured ebony veneer.

The Autobiography model, new to XJ in the 2016 model year and available only with the long-wheelbase body, can be identified on the outside by chrome front bumper air intakes and 20" Maroa wheels. Inside, there's a unique Autobiography Intaglio, quilted semi-aniline leather seats with contrasting stitching, a leather headliner, rich oak inlay veneer, and illuminated stainless steel treadplates, air vents and boot finisher. Rear seat occupancy is provided by individual seats with seat back movement and massage function, and a rear seat entertainment system with two folding 10.2" HD screens.

Following other Jaguar models, the XJ gains an R-Sport model with new side sills, three-piece front splitter, side power vents and a rear spoiler. A gloss black finish enhances the grille mesh, rear valance and the window finishers. The alloy wheels are 20" Mataivia, the interior gains sports seats, R-Sport steering wheel and treadplates, Jet headliner and piano black trim or carbon fibre.

The new Jaguar XJ range will consist of: XJ Luxury, XJ Premium Luxury, XJ Portfolio, XJ R-Sport, XJR, XJ Autobiography. The powertrain range will consist of: 300PS 3.0-litre V6 diesel automatic; 340PS 3.0-litre V6 petrol automatic; 510 and 550PS 5.0-litre V8 petrol automatic.

Alongside the F-TYPE sports car and all-new XF saloon, the XJ is manufactured at Jaguar Land Rover's Castle Bromwich Plant.

Hyundai i30

WHAT'S YOUR EXCUSE?

The Hyundai i30 delivers a polished performance in its updated guise, ushering in more efficient engines, a zippy Turbo model, a seven-speed dual-clutch transmission and some classy styling updates. Hyundai has come a long way very quickly, but it's hard not to be impressed by the maturity of this i30's execution.

The idea of a sporty Hyundai hatchback would have had us rolling in the aisles a few years back but we've seen sister company Kia debut the genuinely credible pro_cee'd GT model, so it was about time Hyundai got with the program. The i30 Turbo does what it says on the tin, offering a 186PS turbo motor that will zip it to 62mph in 8 seconds and on to 136mph, so it's not really hot. You could probably dip your elbow in it and feed it to a baby. Hyundai trumpets its Nurburgring-developed suspension setup, and it also gets bigger wheels and tyres and more direct steering (2.78 turns lock-to-lock).

Of more relevance to the vast majority of i30 buyers are the revised petrol and diesel engines that make up the rest of the range. Buyers will have a choice of two diesel options - a 1.6-litre engine available in either 110 or 136ps outputs. Those who prefer petrol can choose either a 1.4-litre 100PS unit or a 1.6-litre 120PS engine as well as the Turbo model. The 1.4-litre engine is a fresh design, 14kg lighter than its predecessor and more efficient too. The 1.6-litre diesel and the 1.6-litre petrol GDI engines are available with a seven-speed dual-clutch transmission (7DCT). This has replaced the previous six-speed torque-converter automatic and improves both acceleration and economy.

The post-2012 i30 is a car that has matured a lot from the original i30 and it's a really assured piece of design. Hyundai resisted the urge to go over the top in order to show what they could do and has instead created something that's quite discreet and classy. The latest model tweaks the look a little with a few minor changes such as the slightly more assertive hexagonal grille. There are also some different alloy wheel designs in both 16 and 17-inch diameters and three additional body colours: Polar White, Orange Caramel and Jet Black.

The interior design is neat with plenty of metallic and silver painted finishes on display, the centre console not looking unlike that of contemporary Ford models with sprouting air vents. Space is plentiful for the rear seat occupants and the 378-litre boot ought to be big enough for most requirements. Build quality seems very good with a lot of attention paid to materials, refinement and panel fit.

If you're wondering why the Volkswagen Golf, the Ford Focus or the Peugeot 308 are so good these days, the reason is the Hyundai i30. Yes, really. These massive car manufacturers are all scared witless about the unrelenting progress of the Hyundai hatch and the potential it has for kicking huge chunks out of their bottom line. This latest model doesn't show any sign of a deviation in the trend line.

Yes, it is a 'mere' facelift, but this is so much more than a grille, lights and bumpers job. The engines are impressive, the Turbo model underscores the extension of the i30's brand equity upmarket and everything is tuned and fettled to be a few per cent better. While it's not possible for Hyundai to make the vaulting gains it has done to be where it is, the i30 shows that improving incrementally still puts it on collision course with the very best cars in its class.

DONS

Fixtures are released

DONS manager Karl Robinson says he wants the team to follow the example of Rotherham United - who his team play in the first game of the season.

Saturday, August 8, is the date Dons will begin their first ever tilt at the Championship, subject to it being changed for television.

Dons found out when the fixtures were released last Wednesday that they will play familiar teams for the first two games with Preston North End due at stadiummk for the second game of the season, with the Lilywhites being the last team to have defeated Dons in March before they embarked on an 11-match unbeaten run that propelled them to promotion.

"I'm really excited obviously," said Robinson.

"We've played the two teams we face first before – Rotherham is a great one to start with because they've set the benchmark and stayed in the Championship after gaining promotion.

"Our aim has to be to try and emulate them in sustaining ourselves in the Championship. They will be a much better team to the one we played a couple of years back.

"Then comes Preston at home in our first league game which is quite ironic with how last season ended, plus that was the last game we lost.

"We are happy to be playing them again, they are a wonderful team and they will be looking to compete once again."

Looking forward: Dons wants to emulate Rotherham United's Championship survival next season

Meanwhile, Dons will look into providing more car parking spaces as the club expects a lot more supporters to be visiting stadiummk when they are in the Championship in 2015-16.

Dons are expecting gates comfortably into five figures for next season with clubs such as Leeds United, Middlesbrough and QPR expected to bring hundreds if not thousands of fans to games, while added interest from people in Milton Keynes is also expected.

Most games could see between 13,000 and 14,000 people attending, up from the average of around 9,000 for games last season.

Tahtinen becomes last Lightning import signing

MK LIGHTNING have concluded their import player signings with talented Finnish forward Markku Tahtinen.

The centreman joins after a spell with the Elite League Cardiff Devils, where he was taken on to strengthen the team and help ease the burden caused by fixture congestion.

Tahtinen brings to the team a wealth of experience gained across European leagues including Italy, Germany, Sweden, Czech Republic, Denmark and his native Finland.

He also represented his country at junior level and at senior level in the Euro Hockey Tour series of 2002 and 2003.

In the 2012-13 season, Tahtinen was the top points scorer at German club ESV Kaufbeuren.

Tahtinen has previously described himself as a playmaking centreman who will help the team by picking out his team mates with passes, as well as shooting.

Head coach Pete Russell said: "I was looking for a two way centre with good playmaking skills to help the complete balance of our team.

"I was lucky that he played in Cardiff last season as I could watch him closely – I really liked what I saw.

"He looked very reliable at both ends of the rink.

"He has the complete game and reads the play very well.

"He moves well, supports well in the play and makes smart decisions.

"On the puck he sees the ice well and will open up the game with his passing skills.

"He works hard for the team in all situations and plays hard."

Tahtinen is looking forward to coming to MK as well.

He said: "I spoke to Marko Luomala earlier in the summer about how good it would be to play together again. When he signed at Lightning I got in touch with Coach Russell who told me about the team he has signed.

"I had other offers for next season, but MK feels like the right decision.

"I will bring a lot of European experience to the team and try to make lots of passes to our wingers to help them score.

"I hope my skills will help us win a lot this year!"

CRICKET

North Crawley regain Four Counties top spot

MILTON Keynes dropped to third in the Four Counties League after they lost to Biddenham by 66 runs.

Chasing a target of 194 to win after Daniel Brady notched up three wickets, opener Nimesh Chavda got Milton Keynes off to a good start with 44.

But nobody gave him any real support as Milton Keynes were dismissed for 127.

North Crawley took full advantage and regained top spot as they beat Buckland and Aston Clinton by 129 runs thanks largely to 119 from Alex Walker.

Colin Bonnett's four wickets helped North Crawley dismiss their opponents for just 98.

New Bradwell lost to Thurleigh by six wickets while the match between New City (Milton Keynes) and Milton Keynes City was abandoned.

Great Brickhill's match against Thame Town was abandoned in the Cherwell Cricket League.

Wolverton Town beat Oxford Seconds in a very low-scoring game.

Town were bowled out for 89 and must have feared for the second innings, but superb figures of 5-12 from Idrees Butt helped get Oxford out for just 45.

Scores of 69 for Praveen Chandran and 50 by Prasanna Chandran helped Stony Stratford to 231 in the Northamptonshire Cricket League but they lost by seven wickets to Oundle Town.

SPORTSSHORTS

ATHLETICS

IT WAS a very busy weekend for Marshall Milton Keynes Athletics Club with four medals and a club record at the England Athletics U23/20 Championships.

The three Curtis brothers all stood on the podium after the javelin competition while Laeken Impey yet again improved her personal best to win bronze in the hammer. Laura Zialor got a club record with an 11.90m triple jump.

The senior men and women won their latest Southern League Division One match in Stantonbury.

SWIMMING

NEWPORT Pagnell Swimming club had plenty of swimmers competing at this year's South East of England regional championships, which included Erin Saunders finishing second in the 50m breaststroke and Ashley Frost coming home third in the 200m backstroke.

Both qualified for the National Championships to be held in Sheffield in August.

RUGBY UNION

BRENDAN Clark has become the new head coach of senior men's rugby at Bletchley Rugby Club.

Clark, 39, from Christchurch, New Zealand, brings a wealth of knowledge to the role and in New Zealand he played for New Brighton in the Canterbury age grades.

In England he has played for Nottingham, Rugby Lions and Dunstablians, the latter of which he was a player-coach at. Clark will be supported by assistant coaches Jamie Parker and Ian Cope and team managers Pete Garrett, Paul Evans and Jason Zavagno.

Pre-season starts at 7pm on July 7 at Manor Fields and new players are welcome.

KORFBALL

JUST two places remain for Korfstock on July 11 at Bletchley Rugby Club, with 38 teams already booked to take part in the tournament. To book go to gocardless.com.

CYCLING

THE Bradwell Abbey based Madison-Genesis pro bike racing team clinched one of British cycling's glittering prizes when they came out on top of the final round of this year's Pearl Izumi Tour Series.

The 10-round, 12 races Series has seen competitors traverse the length and breadth of the country, from the Isle of Wight to Motherwell and from Aberystwyth to Peterborough in just four hectic weeks and the riders, as in previous years, have provided some breathtaking and sometimes brutal racing action.

In the women's Matrix Fitness Grand Prix series, the Corley Cycles-Drops RT had a much tougher time in their final two races that supported the Tour Series and, although their small team was boosted by the incoming Katie Simcock, they weren't able to improve on their seventh place overall in the team competition.

Charlotte Broughton was just inside the top 20 for the individual classification – but the efforts of this very young team shows so much promise for future seasons.

More problems for Red Bull

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

Hard times: Red Bull mustered up one point as Daniel Ricciardo finished 10th on a difficult weekend in Austria for the Tilbrook-based team. Inset Christian Horner

ANOTHER bad performance by Red Bull at the Austrian Grand Prix at the weekend has fuelled speculation the team may quit the sport.

On several occasions this year, Red Bull have criticised engine provider Renault for not providing a quick enough engine, while the French team are also said to be unhappy with performances from the Tilbrook-based team this season.

The problems with the engine were apparent at the weekend when drivers Daniil Kvyat and Daniel Ricciardo were given 10-place grid penalties as both were using their fifth engines of the season already, when the maximum number allowed is four.

It meant Kvyat started from 18th rather than eighth. Ricciardo had qualified 14th but, as there are only 22 drivers racing this year, the Aussie driver was also hit with a five-second grid penalty because he could not fulfill the 10-place grid penalty fully.

Red Bull owner Dietrich Mateschitz had accused Renault of sapping the team's 'will and motivation' to compete in the sport ahead of the Austrian Grand Prix, according to Speed Week magazine.

"They take from us not only time and money, but also the will and motivation," he said.

Rumours in the paddock have suggested that Red Bull may be looking at Ferrari to be an engine supplier instead of Renault.

Sky Sports says the team is wary of this as they think that would put them at the mercy of Ferrari.

Red Bull team principal Christian Horner also suggested the sport should use an independent advisor to make Formula One more exciting in the wake of criticism Mercedes' dominance is making the sport dull to watch. He told the BBC: "The strategy group is fairly inept. Maybe you need an independent observer, someone like Ross Brawn.

"He understands the challenges and knows the business to write a specification for what a car or technical regulations should be."

Bernie Ecclestone, the F1 supremo, poured water on suggestions of the team quitting the sport though, telling the BBC he thought Mateschitz would be more likely to leave Formula One when the team was winning rather than losing.

Ecclestone told reporters in Austria: "I know Mr Mateschitz very well and there would be more chance of him pulling out if he was winning than when he was losing.

Horner's future as team principal has also been called into question after The Times reported that he had received a call from someone within Red Bull commiserating him over losing his job.

However, Horner has denied that his job is under threat.

He told The Guardian: "I had no idea people were talking about me that way. I have a long contract with the team. It is difficult but I had dinner with Dietrich on Saturday evening and we still get along very well."

Ricciardo recovered enough to finish 10th on Sunday and secure one Championship point for himself and Red Bull, while Kvyat finished in 12th. Horner praised the Aussie for the performance he managed under difficult circumstances.

"From the grid position that Daniel started from today, it was a strong drive from him to score a point."

Thierry Salvi from Renault said about the change of engines for both drivers: "The results were pretty much as expected this weekend.

"We decided with the team to introduce the fifth ICE for both drivers, knowing we would have to take the penalties.

"We knew they would make the race hard work and it was, but both drivers never gave up and at least Daniel could score some points."
